Our Unique Thematical Study Guide

The margin markings cover approximately 100 subjects divided into three sections. For example, the G heading is for those verses relating to God and the many attributes of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Since God has a plan, verses that are illustrating God's plan or the implementing of God's plan, go under the P heading. Verses that speak of God using man come under the heading M.

At the bottom of each marginal reference line is a number. This number directs you to the next page on which the study of the subject continues.

Although many verses contain co-relationships, it would be impossible to list all the verses and, therefore, the listing is not exhaustive. The verses that are listed, however, will give you a good knowledge of each categorized subject.
