About the Author

After being radically set free and delivered from a lifestyle of self-destruction, Brother James Willis was called by the Lord into full-time ministry at the age of twenty-one. Since that time, he and his family have dedicated themselves to sharing the message of God's amazing love and supernatural grace. He has traveled throughout the U.S. and internationally, presenting and demonstrating the gospel of the kingdom of heaven, with supernatural signs, miracles, and wonders confirming God's Word. He and his wife, Christian, have three children and live in northeast Oklahoma.
