“My name is Zhang Rongliang, and I am an unashamed follower of Jesus Christ...It is considered quite dangerous for me to share the contents of this book, but these are stories that need to be told for God’s glory and the encouragement of the church.”

So begins the extraordinary first-person account of a prominent leader of one of the largest underground churches in China. A former Communist Party member, Zhang took a stand for Christ and was targeted for prison, work camps, and torture, all the while helping to build a network of millions of faithful believers. Spanning the time of Mao’s regime to today, Zhang testifies of God’s supernatural movements, as well as the sacrifice of countless Christians who loved and served Christ—regardless of the cost.

AUTHOR BIO Zhang Rongliang has been a leader of the Chinese House Church Fangcheng (China for Christ Church) in Henan Province for thirty years. He has been persecuted and tortured, and has spent a quarter of his life in prison. Zhang continues to lead, inspire, and disciple within Fangcheng.
