Gary Wood was outstanding as a soloist for three years in New Mexico and was preparing himself to preach and sing the gospel by attending Wayland Baptist University. Then he was critically injured in an automobile accident and died.

He spent twenty minutes in heaven and was commissioned by Jesus to make Him real to people wherever he went. Gary has appeared on radio and television programs around the country and has done evangelistic work in Croatia, Italy, Canada, Mexico, Guatemala, Haiti, Venezuela, Singapore, Russia, and the Philippines. He has started and pastored churches in Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, and Ohio. Gary also does missionary work with the Navajo Indians.

Gary has an earned Doctorate and Masters Degree from Grace Theological Seminary.

About the Author

Gary lives in Sugar Land, Texas, with his wife Deena. He also has a daughter Angel who travels and ministers with him. He also has a son David and his wife Shelley and a precious grandson. Gary has seen God heal people of leukemia, cancer, blindness, arthritis, and various other sicknesses and diseases. He has witnessed people being raised from the dead. Various doctors have verified this tremendous miracle as being authentic. God miraculously healed him and promised him that wherever he told his story, people would be saved, healed, and delivered.
