You feel like you don't know how to pray—you can't find the right words to get God's attention. You will be encouraged by this treasury of devotional expressions from Charles Spurgeon.

- His elegant prayers, beautiful in their simplicity, will invite you to be vulnerable before your Creator.
- His profound trust in God will set an example for your own pursuit of a peaceful spirit.
- His persistence in intercession will motivate you to pursue God in prayer.

Perhaps, most importantly, this book will strengthen your faith as you receive God's promise of faithfulness—His promise to hear your prayers.

About the Author

Charles Haddon Spurgeon (1834–1892), the “Prince of Preachers,” preached his first sermon at age sixteen. During his lifetime he preached to an estimated ten million people. He founded and supported charitable outreaches, including educational institutions. He also founded a pastors' college and the famous Stockwell Orphanage. Spurgeon published over two thousand of his sermons, as well as numerous books, which compose the largest collection of work by a single author. Highlighted with splashes of spontaneous, delightful humor, his teachings still provide direction to all who are seeking true joy and genuine intimacy with God.
