

Real Salvation

R. A. Torrey

Discover why what you believe is so important. In Real Salvation, R. A. Torrey explores what God has revealed to us of the afterlife—heaven, hell, and eternity. Join him as he endeavors to answer many of the questions people still grapple with today, such as:

- What does it mean to be saved?
- Who can be saved?
- What can we expect heaven and hell to be like?
- What are the characteristics of an effective soulwinner?
- How can we find true rest and joy?

In this thought-provoking book, Torrey challenges readers, even those who have not yet decided what they believe, to wrestle with age-old questions of faith, redemption, and salvation. His lucid, cogent writing is sure to compel both Christians and non-Christians to seek the truth.

AUTHOR BIO Reuben Archer Torrey (1856–1928) is respected as one of the greatest evangelists of modern times. Several years after his graduation from Yale Divinity School, he was selected by D. L. Moody to become the first dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Under his direction, Moody Institute became a pattern for Bible institutes around the world. Dr. Torrey spent the years of 1903–1905 in worldwide revival campaigns, winning thousands of souls to Jesus Christ. He continued worldwide crusades for the next fifteen years while he served as the dean of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles and pastored the Church of the Open Door in that city.
