

Should I Speak in Tongues?

by Gerald W. Davis

ISBN 978-1-62911-251-0

ISBN: 978-1-62911-251-0

Trade $12.99

Frontlist

Religion/Christianity/

Pentecostal & Charismatic

REL079000

5 1/2" x 8 1/2"

80 pages

Case Qty: 1

A pastor and Bible teacher with more than five decades of experience, Gerald Davis sets out to answer this question: Should I Speak in Tongues?

"My effort in this writing is for the purpose of showing believers in Jesus Christ the benefits of exercising the use of one of the listed gifts in 1 Corinthians 12, that of speaking in tongues, and also to provide some thoughts that will help bring the church body into harmony on this matter."

—Gerald Davis

Speaking in tongues is not just a doctrinal or religious thing to do. It has powerful, positive benefits for every believer. It is an invaluable tool for walking in the freedom "wherewith Christ hath made us free" (Galatians 5:1).

The natural mind cannot comprehend the things of God, so He gave believers the gift of tongues, that we might adequately and appropriately communicate with Him. More than any other aspect of the Christian life, speaking in tongues will radically change and manifest your future destiny in God.

About the Author

Gerald Davis has authored eight books, some of which are printed in four languages. He earned his Doctor of Divinity from Gulf Coast Seminary in Panama City, Florida.

Some of his peers have dubbed him "the preacher that makes the Bible come alive." Many ministers know Gerald as a pastors' pastor.

Gerald has the following mandate from God: "Teach My people how to get from now until dying time walking in success."

To learn more about Gerald, visit www.geraldDavis.org.

