When you think about God's throne, do you imagine a massive, glowing throne in a kingly chamber of heaven? Do you see angels and saints robed in white, worshipping about, while altars of incense haze your view? Author Darrell McManus challenges you to get a more biblical view of God's throne—yes, we said "biblical"!

The Bible says God's throne has wheels. It isn't restricted to the heavenlies but moves from place to place—and if you know how to attract Him, God will enthrone Himself right where you are!

Start your journey of revelation today and discover what happens when you cultivate the atmosphere God promises to enthrone.

About the Author

With a ministry track record spanning over forty years, Darrell McManus has learned a thing or two about kingdom living. He has served as youth pastor, assistant pastor, and senior pastor, and he now travels as a full-time evangelist. Regularly, God moves in Darrell's services, displaying mighty miracles of healing and also inspiring the unsaved to receive faith in Him.
