The Power of Your Words
by Don Gossett & E. W. Kenyon

I agree that I have what God says in His Word that I have!

If you lack anything, tend to be your own worst enemy, or fail to accomplish what you say you will do, then this book will show you how to:

• Have strong faith.
• Make positive confessions rather than negative ones.
• Believe that you will receive God’s promises.
• Possess what you confess.

There is nothing that equals the power of your words!

About the Author

Dr. E. W. Kenyon was born in Saratoga County, New York. At age nineteen, he preached his first sermon. He pastored several churches in New England and founded the Bethel Bible Institute in Spencer, Massachusetts. Kenyon served as an evangelist for more than twenty years. In 1931, he became a pioneer in Christian radio with his show Kenyon’s Church of Air, where he earned the moniker “The Faith Builder.” He also began the New Covenant Baptist Church in Seattle, Washington. In addition to his pastoral and radio ministries, Kenyon has written extensively.

For more than fifty years, Don Gossett has been serving the Lord through fulltime ministry. Born again at the age of twelve, Don answered his call to the ministry just five years later and began by reaching out to his unsaved family members. Don apprenticed with many well-known evangelists, beginning with William Freeman, one of America’s leading healing evangelists during the late 1940s. He also spent time with Raymond T. Richey, Jack Coe, and T. L. Osborn. Don’s many writings have been translated into almost twenty languages and have exceeded twenty-five million in worldwide distribution. Don also has recorded two cassette series. His daily radio show, launched in 1961, has been broadcast worldwide. Don has five children to his first wife, Joyce, who died in 1991. In 1995, Don was remarried to Debra, who has joined him in his ministry.
